What is the Language Practice Mentoring Program?
The Geisteswissenschaftliches Propädeutikum offers this Language Practice Mentoring Program which is open to first- through third-semester English students at the University of Stuttgart.

The tutoring and practice sessions will assist those of you taking Language Practice courses: Essay Writing, Translation, Lexicon & Phraseology, and/or Phonetic Practice courses.

The first two workshops in November will be held live:
- 5pm, Thursday, 11 November 2021 (Common Grammatical Mistakes: Part 1)
- 5pm, Wednesday, 24 November 2021 (Common Grammatical Mistakes: Part 2)

What do we do?
- Practice course-specific exercises (grammar, writing strategies)
- Offer the skills of an online Writing Lab
- Share experiences about Language Practice modules
- Recommend successful methods for Language Practice exams
- Explain strategies for revision of your academic writing

Who are we?
We are 3rd semester English students who look forward to assisting you. You can contact us at the following email: st172384@stud.uni-stuttgart.de

Alex Sprysz & Nick Genin